

Project Café in Chisinau

Instruction

The group has twenty minutes to get to know each other and then to discuss the question of this table. Please make notes on the flip-over paper to share your ideas.

After 20 minutes there is a call to change to a different table.

One person will have to remain at the table; the others will try and find other company as much as possible.

What will be the impact of the introduction of PBL on the Students?

- Give some examples

Project Café in Chisinau

Instruction

The group has twenty minutes to get to know each other and then to discuss the question of this table. Please make notes on the flip-over paper to share your ideas.

After 20 minutes there is a call to change to a different table.

One person will have to remain at the table; the others will try and find other company as much as possible.

PBL was invented in Medicine and it seems to work in engineering, but that does not mean it works out the same for other professions.

Give some examples of professions where PBL is suitable and some where it may be less suitable.

Project Café in Chisinau

Instruction

The group has twenty minutes to get to know each other and then to discuss the question of this table. Please make notes on the flip-over paper to share your ideas.

After 20 minutes there is a call to change to a different table.

One person will have to remain at the table; the others will try and find other company as much as possible.

What will be the impact of the introduction of PBL on the Academic Staff?

- Give some examples

Instruction

The group has twenty minutes to get to know each other and then to discuss the question of this table. Please make notes on the flip-over paper to share your ideas.

After 20 minutes there is a call to change to a different table.

One person will have to remain at the table; the others will try and find other company as much as possible.

What will be the impact of the introduction of PBL on the Employers?

- Give some examples

Instruction

The group has twenty minutes to get to know each other and then to discuss the question of this table. Please make notes on the flip-over paper to share your ideas.

After 20 minutes there is a call to change to a different table.

One person will have to remain at the table; the others will try and find other company as much as possible.

What are the characteristics of a 'good' problem for students?

- Give some examples

Instruction

The group has twenty minutes to get to know each other and then to discuss the question of this table. Please make notes on the flip-over paper to share your ideas.

After 20 minutes there is a call to change to a different table.

One person will have to remain at the table; the others will try and find other company as much as possible.

Assessment of Learning outcomes is Crucial for Quality Control.

- How will the introduction of PBL affect the assessment methods?

Instruction

The group has twenty minutes to get to know each other and then to discuss the question of this table. Please make notes on the flip-over paper to share your ideas.

After 20 minutes there is a call to change to a different table.

One person will have to remain at the table; the others will try and find other company as much as possible.

The relation between teaching and learning is not always clear.

- What are the differences between teaching and facilitating?

Instruction

The group has twenty minutes to get to know each other and then to discuss the question of this table. Please make notes on the flip-over paper to share your ideas.

After 20 minutes there is a call to change to a different table.

One person will have to remain at the table; the others will try and find other company as much as possible.

Moldova has its own history and culture.

- How does the Moldovan culture align with PBL principles?
- Give some examples